

The Rayonier Foundation 2010 "Involved Good Citizen" Community Volunteer Award

CRITERIA:

- 1) Project of volunteer work must be current (within year 2009).
- 2) Organization must be of tax exempt status
- 3) If your nominee is chosen, you will be asked to ensure that a member of your organization be present at the awards ceremony on April 22, 2010.

(Please print or type - use additional sheets if necessary)

Name of Volunteer: _____

Volunteer's Address: _____ Zip: _____

Name of Nominator: _____

Nominator's Address: _____ Zip: _____

Nominating Agency: _____ Phone: _____

Contact at Agency: _____ Phone: _____

Description of volunteer work performed: _____

Impact on society: _____

Impact on volunteer personally: _____

Amount of time spent on this work in 2009: _____

Impact on motivating others to volunteer: _____

Describe why this was an innovative or unique volunteer accomplishment: _____

Any other personal comments about this nominee you would like to add: _____

RETURN NO LATER THAN MARCH 26, 2010.

Mail to: RAYONIER FOUNDATION
Community Volunteer Award
4474 Savannah Highway
Jesup, GA 31545

Award will be presented at Nassau County's 25th Annual Volunteer Awards Luncheon, which will be held April 22, 2010.

List two references for verification of this nominee.

1. _____
Name Phone

Address

2. _____
Name Phone

Address

Signature of Nominator: _____

Agency of Nominator: _____

Rayonier is an equal opportunity employer.

The Rayonier Foundation 2010 "Involved Good Citizen" Community Volunteer Award

PURPOSE OF AWARD:

The Rayonier Foundation "Involved Good Citizen" Community Award will be presented to an individual, living in Nassau County and not a Rayonier employee, who best exemplifies Rayonier's commitment to community involvement. This one-time award seeks to recognize and encourage community involvement within Nassau County and to help strengthen and improve the quality of life for its citizens.

AMOUNT OF AWARD:

A $500 grant will be presented to a non-profit organization or agency of the winner's choice at the 25th Annual Volunteer Luncheon on April 22, 2010.

NOMINATION PROCEDURE: (application attached)

Nominees for the Rayonier Foundation "Involved Good Citizen" Community Award should be individuals living in Nassau County who have made outstanding contributions in the area of volunteer service to a community project or non-profit organization within Nassau County.

Nominations are to be made by fellow citizens, friends, relatives or agencies. A Nomination Award form must be completed by the person making the nomination for each individual nominated.

Nominated individuals must be involved in a current community volunteer service or activity. The nomination may include long-time involvement; on-going activities; recently completed community project; multiple activities or agency commitments.

VERIFICATION OF SERVICE:

The nomination must be verified with the non-profit agency or organization to confirm the nominee is a current volunteer, length of time with the organization, amount of time volunteered, and specific activities or projects the nominee has worked on and other comments included in the nomination.

SELECTION:

The application forms will be reviewed by a Selection Committee comprised of a Nassau County Volunteer Center staff person, a Rayonier representative and a community representative.

The Selection Committee will review the applications to ascertain which nominee best exemplifies outstanding commitment to community service. Criteria includes: length of commitment; dedication to project or agency; has this individual launched a new and innovative community service; what obstacles were overcome to bring about an improved social situation; value of service to receiving agency, organization, and community.

Rayonier is an equal opportunity employer.